How to draw an awful, horrid, furry, fangy, squeaky, drooling, evil, monstrous

Hamster

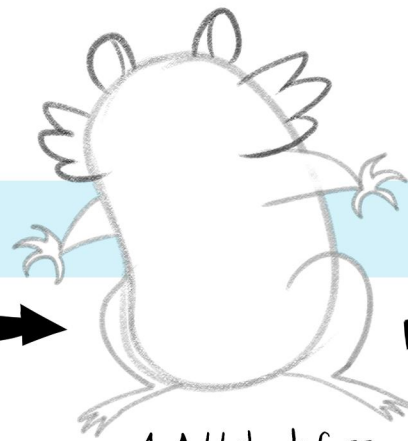

1: Begin with the magic bean (the bean that makes many characters).

2: Add arms with snatching little claws.

3: Add legs with little toes (kinda like a frog, but it's a hamster).

4: Add cheek fuzz and adorable ears.

5: Add evil eyes and sharp evil teeth.

6: Erase the lines you don't want and darken the lines you do want.

7: Add accessories and hamstery accoutrements such as monocles, fancy hats, capes, and evil gnashing fangs.

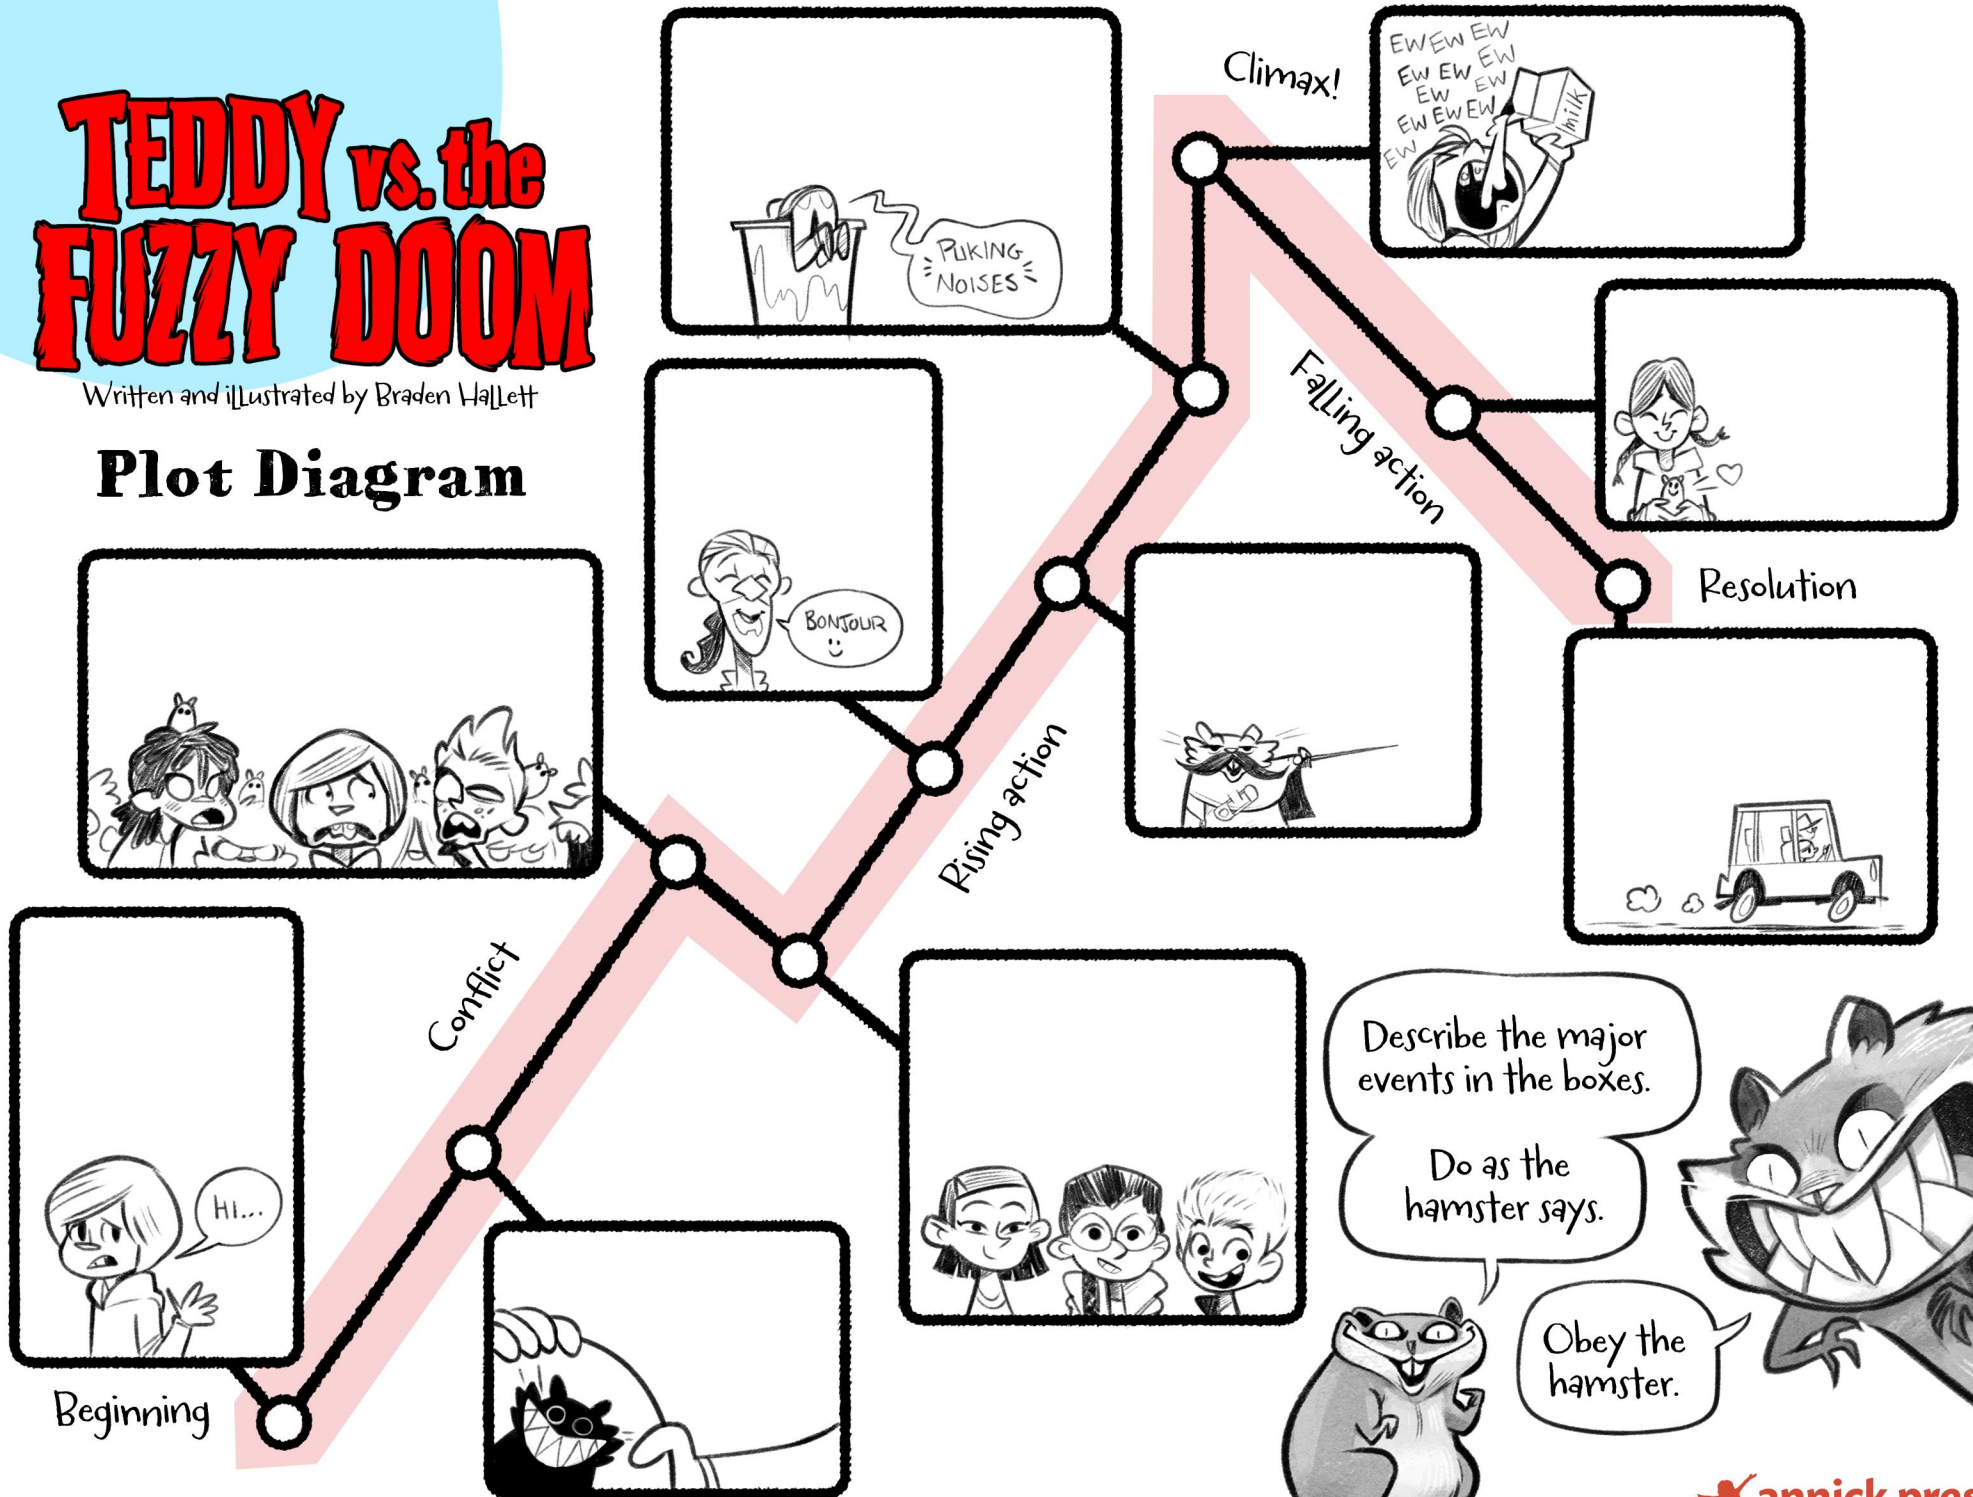

You can use the magic bean to make many characters. Simply draw the bean and add arms, legs, a head, and pretty much anything else you can think of.

What Character Are You?

When meeting new people, you

- A. Stay quiet. You don't know anything about them.
- B. Act friendly. Everyone deserves respect.
- C. Treat them as if you already know them. What is personal space?
- D. Blend in. Say what they say. Do what they do. Don't act weird!

What do you like about school?

- A. Drama class! Anytime I get to act out and be weird!
- B. Art class. Especially if I get to draw whatever I want.
- C. Gym class. Anytime I get to do something active.
- D. Getting to go home.

If you saw a hamster mind-control your teacher, how would you react?

- A. Panic HAMSTERS! HAMSTERS!
- B. Cage the hamster and question it.
- C. Pull out the baseball bat and give it a nice whacking!
- D. I'll just be nice and quiet and maybe it won't notice me. Blend in!

And if your entire school was invaded by mind-controlling hamsters, what would you do?

- A. Protect my friends. Even if it means doing something bad.
- B. Really. That's weird. How? Why? I have so many questions!
- C. Find a weapon. Something. ANYTHING. No one else is going to fight back, so it's up to me!
- D. Find a safe place to hide out until the hamsters are all done.

Are you more introverted or extroverted?

- A. Introverted. Wait, no. Extroverted! Wait! No! Introverted! Can I be both?
- B. Why just two options? Not at all scientific. There should be more options.
- C. Extroverted. Obviously.
- D. Introverted. Yup. Definitely.

What milk-shooting device would you use against the mind-controlling hamsters?

- A. Water gun! Maybe one of those super neat ones with the pressure chamber.
- B. Can it be anything? Because if so I'll hire a pilot and a water bomber.
- C. Something to do with explosives. Can we just not bother with the milk?
- D. Anything at all as long as I don't have to look at, touch, or be part of loading it with milk. Milk is gross. Blurgh.

How do you feel about fitting in?

- A. It's important to me. I like being part of the group.
- B. It'd be nice, but I'm fine with my little group of friends.
- C. Why would anyone care about that?
- D. I like to fit in. If I stand out, then people notice me, and I don't like that!

If you answered mostly A, you're Duggy. If you answered mostly B, you're Shane. If you answered mostly C, you're Tienna. If you answered mostly D, you're Teddy.
